TOP TABLE

Every week one class can earn the treat of having their lunch at the TOP TABLE by earning the most house points.
This week RECEPTION ONE has won!

Table Tennis

The year 5 boys (plus 1 year 3) Table Tennis team competed in the Jack Petchey London Regional finals on Saturday in East London. They were playing against older and more experienced players but all played very well.

They drew the 1st match 4-4 the next they lost 5-3 and the final game was 8-0 but even the games they lost were close in score. Well done- Sam R, John K, Rio Star and Sasha. I look forward to seeing you all compete in this event next year!

The National Archives

We have three lovely events on offer. We're commemorating the work of William Shakespeare and the Great Fire of London, as well as celebrating Science Week- it's a busy term!

The National Archives is easily reachable by public transport. The nearest tube station is Kew Gardens and the nearest train station is Kew Bridge. The R68, 65, 267 and 391 all stop within a twenty-minute walk from our site. More information on transport can be found on our website.

Event 1: Theatre Tots: Who was William Shakespeare?

Where? The National Archives, Kew, TW9 4DU.

When? Tuesday 14th February 2017.

Who? Families with children aged 2-6. However, older and younger siblings are also welcome.

Price: £5 per child, adults are FREE.

Blurb: Children have the opportunity to meet clowns Speare and Shake as they invite themselves to the birthday party of someone very special!

Take part in our interactive performance with music and props, as you find out about the incredible life and works of William Shakespeare. With a focus on imagination and sensory work, this exciting show will be followed by a short workshop and an opportunity to view original documents from Shakespeare's London.

This session is designed for 2-6 year olds, but older and younger siblings are also welcome.

Adults do not need to book for themselves.

Event 2: Family Event - The Great Fire of London: Vlad and Boxtan

Where? The National Archives, Kew, TW9 4DU.

When? Wednesday 15th February 2017.

Who? Families with children aged 5-7, but all ages are welcome.

Price: FREE for all.

Blurb: The Great Fire of London: What happened? Join professional storyteller Kate Cunningham as she introduces you to Vlad the flea and Boxtan the rat. Find out what happens as they are caught up in a fire that threatens to destroy the City of London.

This interactive and sensory approach will help children to understand the events of the Great Fire of London. Children will then have the opportunity to work as 'history detectives' as they find evidence in our documents about the fire, before creating their own finger puppet of Vlad or Boxtan to take home.

This session is designed for 5-7 year olds, but older and younger siblings are also welcome. Adults do not need to book tickets for themselves.

Event 3: Family Event - Heads, shoulders, knees and toes: Bodies in the archive

Where? The National Archives, Kew, TW9 4DU.

When? Saturday 11th March 2017.

Who? Families with children aged 7-11, but all ages are welcome.

Price: FREE for all.

Blurb: Celebrate British Science Week with The National Archives. This talk will give families the opportunity to learn more about the weird and wonderful human body in history through our collection of original documents before taking part in a creative activity with illustrator and medical artist Merlin Evans.
