NUT strike affecting Van Gogh class and Year 4

You may well be aware that the National Union of Teachers announced that members in England have voted overwhelmingly in favour of strike action to protect the pay and working conditions of teachers. As a result it is calling a first day of strike action on Tuesday 5 July. The strike demands are to increase funding to schools and education, guarantee terms and conditions in all types of schools, and to resume negotiations on teacher contracts to allow workload to be addressed.

Whilst we are still to fully work through the implications for all pupils, we will be unable to accommodate Van Gogh Class and Year 4 pupils next Tuesday and therefore school will be CLOSED for those children.

School Uniform

If you wish to order school uniform for September, please ensure that you place an order online no later than Friday 15th July. Your order will be ready to collect on the Inset Day Tuesday September 6th between 1.15 and 3.30pm. The school now only holds a little uniform in stock and therefore you will not be able to order or purchase directly from the office for September uniform.

Open Day

On Thursday 30th June The William Hogarth School welcomed new Reception Parents. It was lovely to meet the new parents and children and we look forward to seeing them in September.

Athletics

Year 4 Borough Quad Kids Report

On Tuesday afternoon, ten pupils from Year 4 travelled to Osterley Athletics Track to compete in the Year 4 Hounslow Borough Quad Kids Athletics Competition.

Every one of the pupils competed to the best of their ability and performed fantastically. As result, they finished a very close second place to Crane Park.

Congratulations to those children who took part. The team was Zaaki, Jadon, John, Bailey, Verissa, Yasmine and Amy from Warhol Class and Eowyn, Nina and Rio from Fedden Class.

Family Learning

On Saturday 6th August, we are inviting families to visit The National Archives to learn more about food and drink in the First and the Second World Wars. Families who book onto the event will attend a learning workshop run by our Education Officers, which includes original documents, and then complete a 'learning trail' of activities. The whole event is completely free to attendees- all they need to do is book in advance on via our website. Please do get in touch if you have any questions or queries about this event or our family learning programme.

Event name: Potatoes in bread and other delicacies: Food During Wartime.

Blurb: Did you know there was rationing in the First World War? Did you know that because of rationing people used potatoes to make bread? In a jam-packed session of activities, discover how the First and Second World Wars changed the way we ate. Explore our collection of documents on food during the wars. Then follow our family fun trail and find out what we're planning to grow in our new First World War allotment. Adults do not need to book tickets for themselves.

Where: The National Archives - Bessant Dr, Kew, TW9 4DU - View Map

When: There are two sessions which last about 2 hours each. You can either book for 10.30 or 13.00.

Who: Families with children aged 5-11 (but older and younger are also welcome!)

Transforming local sports delivery for women and girls- Hounslow

Female participation in sport and physical activity is growing and there is a continuing need to understand how to create experiences that ensure that women continue to see that sport and physical activity can meet their needs. This workshop will cover the most up to date research, how that translates to planning, promoting and delivering activities. Coaches will get access to tools, tips and best practice examples.

What

Three hour workshop providing top tips for engaging women and girls to become and stay active. The course uses tools developed by Street Games and case studies from projects run across the country.

Cost

FREE (using the promotional code PARTNER)

Summer Holiday Cycle Training for children in London Borough of Hounslow

Want to improve your child's cycling skills this summer? We have a range of subsidised cycle training courses for children and young people from aged 3-13 years old running across the borough during school holidays. Balanceability™ is a learn to ride programme that teach younger children the balance and control skills required to ride a bike on two wheels, Bikeability courses are road safety cycle training courses for children and young people aged 9 and above who can already confidently ride a bike on two wheels. Interested in adult cycle training too? Please visit <http://www.cycleexperience.com/cycle-training-adults.php> for more information.

All courses will be running during school summer holidays at The Green School in Isleworth and Cranford Community College for those who live, work or study in the borough.

Balanceability™ learn to ride sessions are designed for children aged 3-10 years who cannot yet ride a bike on two wheels. They teach the essential balance and control skills required to ride a bike.

When do the courses take place? Courses at The Green School will take place during week commencing 25th July and at Cranford College during week commencing 1st August. Balanceability courses consist of two 55 minute sessions across two days. Sessions run from 09:00-12:00.

Are the courses free? These courses are subsidised by the London Borough of Hounslow, subject to a booking and administration fee of £5 per child per course.

Does my child need to have their own bike and helmet? No, all bikes and helmets are provided for these courses

For more information and to book a course visit: <http://www.cycleexperience.com/holidaycourses/hounslow/>

Bikeability Level 2 and Level 3 courses. These cycle training courses are designed for children and young people aged 9 and above who can already confidently ride a bike on two wheels.

When do the courses take place? Courses at The Green School will take place during week commencing 25th July and at Cranford College during week commencing 1st August. Bikeability Level 2 consists of two half day sessions across two consecutive mornings from 9:00-12:00. Bikeability Level 3 is a full day course for young people aged 11+ who have already achieved Bikeability Level 2 and runs from 09:30-15:30.

Are the courses free? These courses are subsidised by the London Borough of Hounslow, subject to a booking and administration fee of £3 per child per course.

Does my child need to have their own bike and helmet? Participants must bring their own bicycle and helmet to take part. We recommend a trip to a bike shop to check the roadworthiness of any bikes before the course begins. BMX bikes are designed for off-road use and are not ideally suited for either course

CARNIVAL IN THE PARK - Saturday, July 9th - Chiswick Back Common

A more detailed Summer Fair newsletter will be distributed on Monday but here are a few things to remind you of:

YOUR SUPPORT

Is invaluable and it is the thing we need most! Please join us on the green behind M&S on Saturday the 9th of July from 11am for our CARNIVAL IN THE PARK!

We will let you know in the special summer fair newsletter HOW you can help on the day, but for now, just keep your diaries open and make a note to attend our biggest fundraiser of the year with your family and friends.

RAFFLE TICKETS

Some fantastic prizes are to be won at this year's Summer Fair Raffle and tickets are available NOW. Your child will come home with a raffle booklet today so make sure to fill out your details for a chance to win (amongst others) meal vouchers at Byron and the Roebuck, music lessons, gym membership, a 10 week course at Rocks Lane and many many more great prizes.

You can pick up as many raffle tickets as you want from your class rep and we will also be selling them all of next week in the playground. Make sure your ticket stubs are back with us before the raffle draw on Saturday around 3pm at the fair.

Nearly New Toys and Children's Clothes

Keep the second hand toys and kids clothes coming! Now also looking for clothes hangers, preferably child sized ones. The clothes (kids only!) must be clean, stain and hole free and in good condition. The toys also need to be clean, in working order (if they require batteries, please make sure they have those so we can demonstrate that the toy actually works) and damage free. If you bring in soft toys, make sure they have been washed and are in excellent condition.

Please bring in your goods to the school office any day of the school week, between now and next Thursday.

Tombola donations

If you haven't already done so, there is still time to bring in your tombola donations this week. Please make sure your donations are handed in by Thursday the 6th of July to the school office.

Food

Please contact Saeeda Abdullah (saeedaabdullah@hotmail.com) to discuss the food you are planning to prepare for the fair.

Cake Sale

Nursery and Reception are hosting the cake sale today. Thanks to all who brought in the treats and helped with running the cake stall.
