Staffing Changes

We are pleased to tell you that Ms Patel will continue to teach in Van Gogh class for this academic year. Unfortunately Miss Hogg, our School Business Manager, is leaving us today to take up an exciting new opportunity. She has been an invaluable member of staff who has made a fantastic difference to the school in her time here. We say a reluctant goodbye with all our best wishes.

Year 4 trip to The British Museum

On Friday, my class (Warhol) went to the British Museum. We travelled by two trains; one of the trains was quite busy. When we got there the outside was amazing and the inside was outstanding. We all got into groups at the start so we held our partners hand. First we saw the Rosetta Stone; it had lots of writing on it. Next we saw some statues - they were all quite different. Then we looked at the most interesting part; the mummified people and animals. There was a very old mummy, he was 5500 years old! After that we had lunch. Me and my friends sat in a cave then we played shark. Afterwards we went back to school by train.

Musical Scholarship.

We are delighted to inform you that Michael and Nina (year 6) have both been awarded the Mayor of London four year music scholarship because of their skill in clarinet playing. We are very proud of them.
