Drivers

On a number of occasions this week, school leaders have patrolled the road outside of school to make sure it is safe for children crossing. Although they cannot do this every day, they will be doing so regularly and publishing the number plates of cars whose drivers are putting children at risk in the newsletter.

NSPCC

Thank you so much for the very generous sponsorship of our children. Together, so far we have raised £2439.00

House Captains

Well done to all of those Year 6 children who gave fantastic speeches explaining why they were standing for elections as House Captains.

Following very close votes the following children were elected:

Blue house: Olina (captain) and Charlie (vice captain)

Green house: Sumaya (captain) and Mia (vice captain)

Red house: James (captain) and Ellie (vice captain)

Yellow house: Thalyta(captain) and Danielle (vice captain)

Secondary Transfer

If you wish to submit your secondary transfer form through the school, this must be returned to the office with a current council tax bill (which we will be happy to photocopy) no later than 24th October.

Trip to The British Museum

On Wednesday we went to The British Museum. We went in groups on the tube. At the museum we looked at lots of different things. Some were thousands of years old. Finally we went to the Africa section and saw loads of statues made out of guns. Then we went home.

By Maja, Year 4, Warhol

Harvest

Please don't forget that is Harvest Festival next week, please bring your donations to the school office. You can see previous newsletters for items being collected.

The Friends of The William Hogarth School

EID CELEBRATION

Last weeks' first ever Friends' Eid celebration was a big success. We raised the amazing amount of £425.19! Many thanks to all who baked, cooked, painted, served and generally helped out. A special thank you for the amazing cake that was commissioned for the event.

AGM

Thanks to everyone who attended the meeting. The AGM minutes are available on the school website and the Friends notice board.

6 new parent workshops in Twickenham or Kingston

Parent workshops this autumn

Developing resilience

Oct. 22nd

Help your child deal with the ups and downs of life.

Preparing for the teen years

Nov 19th

Understand the changes you can expect and how to parent your child now in ways that will help you maintain closeness later.

Developing self esteem

Dec 3rd

How children feel about themselves affects everything from how well they learn to the friends (and eventually even partners) they choose.

Managing anger

Dec 11th

Anger is a normal feeling – however uncomfortable. Tips and techniques for helping you and/or your child manage anger

Assertiveness for your child

Nov 13th

Evidence suggests assertive kids are far less likely to be picked on or form poor relationships. Learn how to help your child become more assertive rather than aggressive or passive.

Helping your child deal with the behaviour of others

27th Nov

For many children (particularly eldest and only children) dealing with the argy-bargy of normal school life is hard. If your child constantly complains about how others behave this is the workshop for you.

All workshops are from 7.30pm to 9.30pm and cost £15. There are a number of £1 places available on for those in financial need.

Gill Hines is a freelance Education and Parenting Consultant and author with hundreds of hours of experience in delivering straightforward, down to earth workshops to parents.
