Message from the Headteacher

Happy Diwali to all our families who are celebrating this important festival.

We have finished off this half term with a week-long project around Black History. As well as using this to stimulate writing, every child in the school has had the chance to participate in a music workshop. Children in Year 3 have been even more creative, designing African masks and learning how to tell stories through dance. I can't wait to see their performance later on this afternoon.

Andy Rooney, our Chair of Governors, has drawn my attention to the proposed Cycle Super-Highway 9 along the High Road. The current proposals will affect the traffic flow and space for pedestrians at the end of Duke Road and as such, are likely to have an impact on accessing the school. The proposals are in the consultation phase until 31st October - it is definitely worth have a look and expressing your views and ideas. The consultation website can be accessed via the link below:

<https://consultations.tfl.gov.uk/roads/d11f0415/>

I am delighted to let you know that our recruitment process for a Deputy was successful. We have appointed Miss Rees, who will start at the school in January after the Christmas break. Miss Rees is hoping to visit the school during the next half term to ensure a smooth transition process, so that she can hit the ground running in January. In the meantime, Mrs Colley will be in school on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays undertaking key elements of Mrs McGahey's role.

Have a lovely half-term break.

Miss Stockley

Natural History Museum

Year 2 had a wonderful trip to the Natural History Museum. We learnt a great deal about dinosaurs and had fun rebuilding a stegosaurus.

Viktor in O’Keeffe class really enjoyed exploring the museum and having a detailed look at a variety of crystals.

Chloe in O’Keeffe class had fun looking at the creepy crawly section especially in the kitchen. She learnt a great deal about the bugs that explore our kitchens.

Beatriz in Matisse class really enjoyed when the robot t-rex was roaring and moving around.

Sachi in Matisse class learnt a great deal about the baby dinosaur and thought the whole trip was amazing.

The trip was a great success with the children representing the William Hogarth School in an outstanding manner.

The year 2 team would like to thank the parent helpers for coming on the trip and making it an amazing experience.

Half-Term Project

October is Black History Month, so if you have time on your hands during half-term, why not have a go at our Black History Half-Term Project?

For the project, we would like you to find out about a significant black Londoner. This could be a musician, athlete, poet, artist or any other person you admire or like. It could even be your neighbour or a relative! To help you research the person you choose for your project, you could go on visits or use the internet.

Once you have done your research, think about how you will present what you have found out. You might decide to film a documentary, create a collage, draw a comic strip, poster or Top Trumps card. You could even write a book. The choice is yours.

Most of all, enjoy finding out about another Londoner.

Projects will need to be returned to school by Friday 3rd November.
